GREAT MEMORIAL
SERVICES TODAY

British Residents and All Classes
To Meet at Kawaiahao
Church.

ALL HONOLULU will mourn the death of the late Queen of Great Britain this afternoon. Territorial and United States offices and the courts will remain closed, and all the wholesale houses, retail business places and little stores will suspend business. The committee appointed for that purpose have consulted the managers of various business houses and they have all signified their willingness to close at noon for the day, and there will be no business anywhere in town.
It is anticipated that there will be 1,200 people seated in Kawaiahao Church, and hundreds more will throng the aisles at 2 o'clock, when the services will open with Chopin's funeral march, played by Mr. Wray Taylor, pipe organ; Mr. Joe Rosin, violin, and Mr. Mott-Smith, cello.

The Territorial Band will play dirges for a half hour previous to the opening of the services outside the church, and the memorial program will be given by the combined choirs of St. Andrew's Cathedral and St. Clement's chapel.
Governor Dole and staff will attend in body. Formal invitations were sent only to Government and Consular officials. The form of invitation is as follows:
"The British residents of Honolulu request the presence of — at a service to be held at Kawaiahao Church on Friday, February 8th, at 2 o'clock p. m. in honor of the memory of the late Majesty Queen Victoria. R. S. W. P. T. R. Walker, Esq., secretary of the committee. Please present this at the door of the church."

The church has been artistically decorated with festoons of crepe and drapery of British flag cloth. Crepe hangings have been placed about the pulpit and choir stand, and the balcony rails are draped in crepe. Behind the minister's stand the English flag is gracefully hung, its folds caught up with streamers of crepe.

Rev. J. Osborne and Rev. Hamilton Lee will conduct the services, assisted by Rev. W. M. Kincaid, pastor of Central Union Church, and Rev. H. H. Parker, pastor of Kawaiahao Church. Mr. Osborne, Mr. Kincaid and Mr. Parker will speak. Mr. Wray Taylor will play the organ, assisted by Mr. Mott-Smith with the cello and Mr. Joe Rosin with the violin. The following is the program as it will be given:
Prelude, Funeral March..... Chopin
Hymn, "On the Resurrection Morning"..... 90 and 120
Lessons..... I. Cor. xv, 20v.
Hymn..... "Rock of Ages"
Hymn..... "Nearer, My God, to Thee"
Address..... Rev. J. Osborne
Hymn in Hawaiian "Jesu Aloha Mar"
Address..... Rev. H. H. Parker
Hymn..... "O God, Our Help"
Address..... Rev. W. M. Kincaid
Hymn..... "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er."
Benediction.

All citizens of Honolulu are cordially invited to be present. The seating capacity of the church will admit of seats for 1,200, and there is a great deal of aisle room, which will undoubtedly be utilized early.
Bishop Willis has issued invitations for the memorial services to be held on Sunday afternoon in St. Andrew's Cathedral. The Bishop expects to address 600 people on that day.

Commerce of the World for 1900.
Commercial conditions throughout the world in the closing months of 1900 are pictured in a table in the "Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance," issued by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics. The table shows the imports and exports of the principal countries of the world during such parts of the calendar year 1900 as can be shown from the latest available data, and compares the same with the corresponding month of the preceding year, thus presenting a picture of the growth of the world's commerce in the present year as compared with that of the preceding year. The table which thus presents the latest available data for the current year necessarily includes only those countries which publish monthly or quarterly statements of their commerce.
A comparison of the commerce of the principal countries of the world with that of the United States in 1900 and of the growth or reduction of their commerce with our own development during the year presents some facts of especial interest in considering the wonderful development of our own commerce in the past year.
Taking the countries in their alphabetical order as arranged in table, the facts presented are as follows:
